Quotebook is where you collect quotes that matter. Curate, organize, and share the quotes from your library in an app designed for readability. Build your collection over time, and your favorite quotes will always be with you on all your devices.

• Add quotes seamlessly from life, books, and friends

• Discover more about the people and places that inspire you

• Share quotes with the people who matter, no matter where they are

• Tag and search quotes to find the perfect one when you need it most

• Collect quotes on your phone and they'll be waiting at home on your iPad

For complete details, support, and more, visit quotebookapp.com.

Quotebook 3 is our biggest release ever. We've completely redesigned and rewritten the app, making it easier than ever to collect your favorite quotes and give them context and personality.

• Fully rewritten iCloud syncing

• Add images and descriptions to authors and sources

• Information about your authors and sources is automatically downloaded from Wikipedia

• Auto-complete authors, sources, and tags from within the app, your contacts, and your music library

• Import quotes from your Tumblr posts and Facebook profile

• Tap into any author or source from the quotes screen to see more quotes from them

• Discover and save random quotes from the app's main screen

• Share quotes to Tweetbot, Tumblr, and Day One

• Improved Auto-Detection of quotes on your clipboard (including from iBooks)

• x-callback-url support for the Quotebook URL scheme so other apps can add quotes seamlessly

• Simplified settings